Tuck Everlasting: Chapter 10 Homework

 Turned in (2) ← DUE: Mar 29, 2011

Create a card and write a letter to Winnie and give advice on how to handle the problem she is facing in the story of whether she should tell about the spring or keep it a secret.

Provide at least three facts to defend your advice, and use proper Friendly Letter guidelines.

 Me - Jamie:
Great job on letter structure and complete sentences. I think you need to reread the directions though -- the directions asked you to decide if Winnie should tell family about the spring, not if she should drink from the spring.
you turned it in early - I'll give you another shot!

Mr. Jefferson

Being willing to think outside the box and try new things. But for me the most important thing is administrative support and LOTS of professional development.

Best Practices for Safe Networking

- ▶ Encourage students to create their own accounts to ensure password safety
- ▶ After all students join your group, lock the group code to prevent others from joining
- ▶ Monitor group membership to ensure only students in your group have joined
- ▶ Educate students on proper online etiquette
- ▶ Use “Read-Only” status to curb inappropriate behavior
- ▶ Always log in through your subdomain
- ▶ If your school or district does not have a subdomain, claim one at <http://www.edmodo.com/institutions>

First Steps for Getting Started

- 1 Complete your profile
- 2 Create a group and invite students.
- 3 Post class materials and initial discussion questions
- 4 Join a subject or content community to make connections and access material for the classroom

Me to Adventist Educators

Hello everyone, just wanted to let everyone know that I will be presenting Edmodo at the NAD Teacher's Convention, Nashville, TN Tuesday, August 7 | 3:45 - 5 pm

Blended Learning—Expanding the Classroom Walls Using Edmodo Technology

Edmodo provides teachers and students a secure place to connect and collaborate, share content and educational applications, and access homework, grades, class discussions and notifications. This workshop will provide practical lessons on how to use the Edmodo platform to provide blended learning across the curriculum.

Me to Adventist Educators

Welcome, and a special greetings to you. Thank you for joining this group. As I started using Edmodo this year with my students, I started thinking about other Adventist educators who are using this amazing platform. I have a special desire and vision using Edmodo to connect our Adventist schools sharing ideas, projects, our beliefs and more.

A little about myself, I have been teaching for over thirteen years. Ten years in public school and going on my fourth year in the Adventist system. I am a product of Adventist education from first
